

ROB DIMIERO

KITCHEN & BATH
DESIGN & SALES

For close to five years, Rob managed multiple interior design departments at a national home improvement center. Looking for a new challenge and wanting to focus exclusively on kitchen and bath products, Rob approached Case Supply and was hired immediately in January of 2002.

Rob began his Case Supply career in our plumbing sales division and after demonstrating a proficiency in kitchen and bath products he was promoted to our showroom sales department. Pulling on his extensive education that was concentrated in architectural disciplines, Rob was a natural for reading blueprints, drafting layouts and creating functional and imaginative designs for his many satisfied customers.

One of those customers is Atlas General Contractors of Rochester, New York. Rob is the select kitchen and bath source for Atlas's metropolitan revitalization project and has consulted and sold the package for their recent Home-O-Rama model.

Rob's expertise is so trusted that Pigliavento Builders of CNY, grants him complete planning autonomy throughout the selection and construction process in dealing
